Re: Third Extension of Filing Deadline for 2021 Annual Operations Report

Dear Mr. Kramer:

On March 3, 2022, the Commission granted Haida Energy, Inc. (HAIDA) an extension to delay the submission of its 2021 annual report until May 2, 2022.¹ In the request, HAIDA indicated that it would not receive the 2021 financial information until sometime early-to-mid April 2022, and therefore, HAIDA would not be able to complete the annual report by the March 31, 2022, due date.

On April 20, 2022, the Commission granted HAIDA an extension to delay submission of the annual report from May 2, 2022, to June 15, 2022.² In its request, HAIDA indicated that extenuating circumstances requires HAIDA to request additional time; specifically, 2021 is HAIDA's first year of operations and the first year the company has been audited.

On June 10, 2022, the Commission received a third request to delay submission of HAIDA's annual report from June 15, 2022, to July 15, 2022.³ In its request, HAIDA indicated the audit work has not yet been concluded, however, HAIDA expects the audit report to be published by June 30, 2022. HAIDA expects an extension to July 15, 2022, would provide enough time for to file its annual report.

We reviewed the request and determined that an extension should be granted; therefore, we grant HAIDA's request to extend the annual report filing deadline until July 15, 2022.
